3. Milk Jug Toss

- Grab some empty milk cartons and cut off the bottom. If you want to fancy them up, you can use some colored duct tape. To make the ball I wrapped some tape around a wad of newspaper. You can play catch one person to another, or you can throw the ball up and catch it yourself

4. Indoor/Outdoor Field Hockey

Take some pool noodles, balloons and laundry baskets for a fun backyard field hockey game. Plus, with the running back and forth, they're able to get some of that extra energy out!

5. Easy Frisbee Golf

With just a few supplies, you can have a complete frisbee golf setup right in your own backyard!

Great Movies to watch when it is hot outside

2. Groundhog Day
3. Frozen
4. Happy Feet
5. The Chronicles of Narnia
